 FOR HEALTHY START
 MOTHERS

Carolyn is available through Healthy Start to counsel women struggling with anxiety, depression, life adjustments as a mom, and/or managing life with COVID.

Carolyn Oliphant Suniga, LCSW, has been working as a counselor since 2011. She's trained in rural mental health and has worked in criminal justice. As a counselor, her goals are to serve women who may be experiencing daily struggles with mental health, domestic violence, and serves as a patient advocate. In her free time she enjoys gardening and spending time with her grandchildren.
